

Rome, 14 September 2011

Finmeccanica Press Release

With reference to today's rumors, Finmeccanica reiterates that, as announced during the presentation of the half-year results for 2011, the company will provide additional information regarding its strategies in the transport sector upon completion of the business review and actions implemented with the aim of ensuring the profitability of the business and maximising shareholder value.