In line with our industrial, geographical and financial strategy

... we acquired DRS Technologies...
  ✓ a leading player
  ✓ in one of our three strategic pillars: Defence Electronics
  ✓ positioned in the largest Defence market: USA

... despite financial market turmoil, to finance the acquisition we...
  ✓ obtained a Bridge Loan for €3.2bn
  ✓ raised Share Capital for €1.2bn
  ✓ issued a €1bn bond
Against the current backdrop of financial crisis and slowdown in the real economy, visibility is lower and forecasts more difficult to make.

To respond to the present situation, we intend to strengthen and to leverage more on some key aspects of our strategy such as:
- Geographical diversification and focus on Strategic Pillars, Defence Electronics, Helicopters and Aeronautics
- Financial discipline and rigour, through a selective investment policy aimed at continuous growth in profitability and strong focus on cash flow generation

DRS financing successfully achieved, Credit Rating maintained (BBB/A3, stable outlook) after:

- Bridge Loan (July 2008) of €3.2bn: renegotiated in December, leading to the maintenance of favourable conditions. No Ansaldo Energia IPO required for reimbursement;
- Capital Increase (closed in Nov. 2008): €1.2bn issued successfully, €400mln higher than required by Bridge Loan terms; proceeds immediately used to partially pay down Bridge Loan
- Bond (Dec./Feb. 2009): €1bn raised, despite financial market turmoil
- DRS bonds almost entirely reimbursed in January 2009

No Refinancing Needs in 2009

(1) DRS Bond reimbursed on January 2009 not included.
Business Review & Outlook
1) Italy, UK and USA now account for almost 60% of Group revenues

2) Defence budgets expected substantially stable in these countries over next few years despite financial crisis

3) Security requirements, usually funded independently from Defence, expected to increase

4) Business and geographical diversity and lack of dependency on any one programme

Finmeccanica able to respond to market conditions accordingly
Italy

Overall Defence investments for 2009-11, funded by Defence and Industry Ministries, substantially unchanged vs 2006-08

Finmeccanica able to source other ministerial funding for Security programmes (ie Ministries of Interior and Transportation)

UK

Stability in Defence procurement expected in the short and medium term

Finmeccanica’s main programmes not at risk (ie Future Lynx, Eurofighter)

USA

Defence budget expected to be substantially stable for 2010 and 2011

Major revamping/upgrade programmes could replace potential delays/cancellations of Procurement contracts, with direct benefits for our businesses
Expected

Helicopters
- CH47+CSAR Italy
- Integrated Operational Support for UK MoD rotary wing fleet
- AW101 - AW109 export
- AW139 orders expected over 2009-2013

Defence Electronics
- Eurofighter Tr.3 & export for avionics
- Forza Nec, Battleground Digitalisation
- Tetra, Secure Comms, for Italian Police
- Air Traffic Control, i.e. Russia &CIS, Romania, Turkey
- Naval Combat Systems for UAE

Aeronautics
- Eurofighter Tr.3
- C-27J export opportunities (i.e. Slovakia, Greece, Lithuania, Bulgaria, Romania) in addition to US JCA
- M346 contract in UAE and with Italy (total ca. 55 a/c)

Opportunities

Helicopters
- AW119 Koala India
- AW 101 export
- USA: ARH and Combat Search&Rescue in USA (in 2009)
- Presidential Helicopter

Defence Electronics
- Border Control programmes in different countries (Middle Eastern, Arabic and North African countries)
- Avionics equipment for additional Eurofighter export opportunities
- Combat Systems for India

Aeronautics
- EFA export (i.e. Saudi, Japan, Turkey, India, Greece, Romania, Switzerland)
- C-27J export opportunities (i.e. Nigeria, India, Oman, UAE, Qatar)
- M346 export (i.e. Singapore, Greece, others) for a total of >60 a/c
- JSF involvement over next decade starting 2011/12

Helicopters: Large Robust Military Backlog Supports Future Performance

FY 2008

- Exceeded 2008 revenue and delivery targets. Revenue growth mainly driven by higher volumes in civil-gov (AW109 +34% YoY, AW119 +50%, AW139 +22%); 226 helos delivered (+20%)
- Strong order growth driven by both military – T129 Atak, €1.1bn - and commercial (312 units for ca. €2.3bn)
- Slight decrease in profitability due to sterling translation effect and product mix

Outlook 2009 - 2011

- Well placed to endure current economical slowdown; able to maintain solid growth
- Multiple rotorcraft applications dilute exposure to downturn in specific sectors
- Order intake expected to be supported by higher demand for new government and military helicopters worldwide, while civil orders are expected to decline
Defence Electronics: Well Placed to Respond to Increasing Worldwide Security Needs

FY 2008

Excluding DRS impact, consolidated from 22/10/2008

- Orders mainly driven by further tranche of Eurofighter T2, FREMM, ATC Qatar, Civil protection systems, IT & Security
- Revenue and EBITA impacted by negative sterling translation effect, partially offset by increased volumes in IT & Security, Avionics (Eurofighter), Electro-optics

Outlook 2009 – 2011

- Increase in orders and revenues driven primarily by Eurofighter, Border control and security systems, land systems (i.e. Forza NEC), TETRA and Through-Life Management
- Benefits from enlarged Electronics, in the form of integration and new opportunities from combined offering between DRS and Finmeccanica platforms
- Good diversification of DRS backlog reduces risks of delays/cancellations

Aeronautics: Breakthrough Selection for M346 in UAE

FY 2008
- Revenues up 10% due to ATR and aerostructures (B787 and A380)
- Volumes and restructuring drive EBITA increase, offset by mix
- Robust and high quality backlog further enhanced by good military orders (Eurofighter, C27J, G222, ATR Special Mission)

Outlook 2009 – 2011
- Worldwide opportunities for M346, boosted by recent selection in UAE
- Strong legacy (Eurofighter and C27J) and new (M346) programmes drive profitability
- Pace of B787 contribution will depend on evolution of civil market downturn.

Space: Large European Programmes Confirmed

FY 2008

- Revenues up 17% driven by both Manufacturing and Services
- EBITA growth mainly due to higher volumes of production offset by weaker mix

Outlook 2009 – 2011

- Revenue growth driven by Services; increased profitability mainly due to synergies and scale economies
- Order growth driven by both Manufacturing (Galileo, Gmes, Meteosat, Sicral2) and Services (COSMO, Sicral 1B and Galileo/Infomobility)
Defence Systems: Good and Sustainable Performance

FY 2008

- Order growth driven by further tranche of FREMM programme and Torpedoes
- Revenues driven by Torpedoes (Black Shark, MU90), Land&Naval (VBM, Hitfist), offsetting a slight decrease in Missiles
- Profitability increase mainly due to higher volumes in Land & Naval and Torpedoes

Outlook 2009 – 2011

- Growth and profitability driven by Torpedoes and Missiles
- Restructuring continues at pace in Land&Naval and Missiles
- Orders driven by Land (Forza NEC, VBM), Torpedoes (Black Shark, A244/3, MU90), Naval (76/62 SR) and Missiles (Meteor and Aster)

Civil Engineering: Breakeven Achieved in Transport, Restructuring Continues

Transportation

FY 2008
- Volumes increase mainly due to Signaling & Systems
- Ebita growth mainly due to break even in Vehicles and higher volumes and profitability for Signaling & Systems

Outlook 2009 – 2011
- Good order inflow expected from both Signaling & Systems and Vehicles

Energy

FY 2008
- Profitability increase due to higher production
- Order growth mainly driven by New Units (Plants & Components and Combined Cycle plants)

Outlook 2009 – 2011
- Service activities and Components will drive growth together with consolidation in New Unit segment
- Good opportunities for Nuclear business in L/T, without significant direct investments

Business Strategy
Finmeccanica Today: a Leading A,D&S International Player…

...focused on 3 Strategic Pillars (Helicopters, Aeronautics, Defence Electronics & Security ca. 70% of Revenues), with local industrial presence in 3 domestic markets (USA, UK, Italy 60% of Revenues)

- Helicopters ~ 17%
- Aeronautics ~ 14%
- Defence Electronics & Security ~ 37%
- Space ~ 6%
- Defence Systems ~ 6%
- Transport & Energy ~ 18%
- Others ~ 2%

Total Revenues* €17.1bn

With outstanding positions in other Defence segments (Missile, Underwater, Land & Naval Armament)

Reference partner in the Space Alliance, with control over Value Added Services (VAS) and Ground Operations

Strong niche capabilities in Transport and Energy: tactical assets for value creation

* Pro Forma Revenues including 12 months of DRS Technologies
Pursuing Six Main Strategic Objectives

1. Drive further profitable growth of the 3 Strategic Pillars, also leveraging DRS’s positioning in US
2. Exploit specific niche excellences to conclude wider strategic alliances (e.g. torpedo systems)
3. Leverage Group’s system capabilities to capture public sector investments in infrastructure
4. Strengthen industrial competitiveness to secure cash generation in line with achieved profitability
5. Rationalise product portfolio and selectively innovate in a sustainable way
6. Establish and develop new local partnerships to achieve strong footprint in selected growing markets

Value Creation for our Shareholders
Executing the Strategy

Strategic objectives will be executed by targeting profitability returns and in line with the following priorities:

✓ Cash flow generation to secure growth

✓ Sustainable and selected investments (tangible and intangible) aimed at enhancing competitiveness and quality (from internal processes to Customer delivery)

✓ Balanced and properly diversified product mix enabling innovation
First commercial indications in North America are encouraging

- Finmeccanica Space Services business won two contracts in December to provide US Defence Forces, through DRS, with connectivity services in support of troop operations
- Potential to bring DRS capabilities onto future US military programmes together with Finmeccanica’s helicopter and aircraft businesses
- Maintenance and overhaul capabilities (DRS currently on C130 Coast Guard programme) could be extended to civil and military helicopter fleets and military aircraft programmes
- Possibility for DRS and Selex Galileo to develop new generation EO systems

First proposals for international border control and homeland security programmes

- First combined initiatives demonstrate how DRS capabilities and relationships enhance Finmeccanica’s ability to compete for Homeland Security and Border Control programmes internationally:
  - Saudi Arabia critical infrastructure protection
  - Security systems for vessel traffic management from Europe to USA
  - Civil infrastructure protections systems in Iraq
  - Finmeccanica comms equipment selected under DRS Security projects in Mediterranean

Key drivers of successful execution

- Profitability
  - Actions for continuing improvement
  - Continuous ongoing efficiency plan
  - Pursuing Group synergies

- Cash Generation
  - Cash generation consistent with economic performance

- Investment Rationalisation
  - Sustainable self-funding capability
Net Investments amount to approximately €3.5bn in 2009-2011 and are concentrated in our strategic pillars.

Investing in Enabling Products and Technologies for Innovation
Establish Local Partnerships in Target Markets

NORTH AMERICA
- Strengthen manufacturing capability and expand in Defence & Security through integration with DRS

MIDDLE EAST
- Cooperation in aerospace and Security Systems

RUSSIA
- Structural partnerships for civil markets (ATM, ATR, Helicopters, Railways, Postal services, Energy)

CHINA
- Expansion of presence in Civil Helicopters, Regional aircrafts, Signalling, ATC and Port Security

INDIA
- Industrial and Commercial Partnerships in Helicopters, Naval Guns and other areas

BRAZIL
- To establish partnerships for Security, ATC, Defence Electronics, and aerospace segments

Partnership localisation for Helicopters, Defence Electronics, Aeronautics, Underwater Systems
Large Markets – Russia

Aeronautics

- SuperJet100 programme (JV between Alenia Aeronautica & Sukhoi)

Railway Transportation

- Development of signalling systems (Ansaldo STS) and multiple electrical units (AnsaldoBreda)
- High speed Jeddah-Mecca-Medina (Finmeccanica with Italian and Russian Railways)

Helicopters

- L/T agreement signed between AgustaWestland and Oboronprom for final assembly of AW139 production and for commercial and maintenance of AW119, AW109 Power, Grand and AW139 for Russian Market

Postal automation

- Development of a “Turn key” postal automation system in Moscow region (ElsagDatamat)

Air Traffic Control

- Radar Meteor for Air Traffic Control systems (Selex Sistemi Integrati)

Energy

- Gas turbines and decommissioning of nuclear plants (Ansaldo Energia)
Consolidating Markets – Turkey

- Selex Komunicasyon, a Selex Communications company, has developed good relationships with local Armed Forces and Institutions.
- AgustaWestland and Alenia Aeronautica put in place L/T cooperation agreements with local defence industry (i.e. T129Atak helicopter, ATR 72ASW).
- OTOMelara (guns), Selex Sistemi Integrati (radar 3D & ATC) and Ansaldo STS (signalling) have finalised some negotiations and are pursuing other important activities.
- Gokturk Satellite for Earth observation (Telespazio, Thales Alenia Space) finalised recently.
- Business opportunities in defence and security business, by strengthening local presence through partnerships (i.e. JV) with local players.
Negotiations started for the acquisition of 48 M-346 advanced lead-in fighter trainer a/c

The agreement includes the creation of a JV in UAE between AleniaAermacchi and the Mubadala Development Company to establish a final assembly line for M-346

Helicopters: more > 80 sold so far (of which ca. 45 AW139)

SELEX Sistemi Integrati, through the JV Abu Dhabi System Integration (ADSI), won a contract for ca. €70mln to supply UAE Navy with Naval Combat Systems to equip new fast patrol boats for the UAE Armed Forces as part of the Ghannatha programme.

ADSI will also supply the electro-optical surveillance and navigation systems, and will be responsible for the integration of all equipment on both these new ships and those to be upgraded.
Conclusion (1/2): Through the Following Actions…

- Increase control of industrial processes throughout the entire life cycle
- Reduce working capital by optimising supply chain and inventory management, and by improving manufacturing process and milestone achievements
- Rationalise and select investments, aiming at amortisation to investment ratio equal to 1
- Manage revenue growth maximising capability to turn profit into cash (CF conversion)
- Continue efforts to reduce G&A impact on revenues
Conclusion (2/2): Over 2009-2011 We Will Focus On …

- Our Strategic Pillars
- Maintain good visibility through robust backlog
- DRS integration, in order to exploit new product/market opportunities
- Business consolidation and rationalisation
- High quality of “delivery”, through efficient and effective programme management

- Economic and financial objectives:
  - Continuous growth in profitability
  - Strong focus on Cash Flow generation
  - Alignment between FOCF and NOPAT
  - Net debt reduction

Continuing to Execute Economic, Financial and Strategic Goals
